Disclaimer

These standards and it's certification program have been developed by NCCAP after years of surveying and research. By applying for certification, applicant tacitly agrees to the standards. By applying for certification, applicant expressly waives any right of law for redress or compensation due to failure to obtain certification by NCCAP. (Applicant acknowledges NCCAP certification as voluntary and that applicant's failure to obtain certification does not effect his or her right to obtain gainful employment.)

Declaration

I acknowledge that it is my responsibility:

1. To keep the NCCAP office informed of any name or address change

Email Address _____

Facility Information _____

2. To keep my certification current by renewing every two years before the expiration date.

I further understand that NCCAP will remind me of my need to send in my completed renewal form, documentation and fee. I then have:

1. At least 60 days in which to submit my form and fee and if I am delinquent in my response NCCAP has the following policy:
  - a. My file will be kept for one calendar year past the expiration date. During this reinstatement period I am not permitted to use my certification, title or claim, to be certified with NCCAP.
  - b. My certification will be suspended after the expiration date and my name removed from the NCCAP registry.
  - c. At the end of the reinstatement period my file will be destroyed.
  - d. If I fail to respond within the year past my date for renewal and want to become a Certified Activity Professional after this point, I must begin the initial process of certification under the current certification standards and fees.

I acknowledge that falsification or misrepresentation of information or supporting documentation at any time during the certification process can lead to NCCAP's refusal to certify me. By signing below, I consent to NCCAP checking references, verifying information, and obtaining any other reports it may deem necessary to evaluate my application. I agree that by signing this declaration, I will hold NCCAP harmless from any result of such reference checks.

CERTIFICATION Review Process

You may opt to mail the application by certified mail (return receipt requested) to assure it has been received. Sending applications overnight will not expedite the review process.

When an Application is received at the NCCAP office, The staff will:

- Determine if the application documentation is complete:
- Send application file to the Certification Review Committee (CRC). The CRC is a team of Activity Consultants Certified who: carefully review every aspect of the application, grant or deny certification based upon NCCAP standards. CRC returns the application file to the NCCAP office with a decision.
- If application and supporting documentation is not accurate, complete or legible, it will be returned requesting more information.
- The NCCAP office notifies you of CRC’s decision (usually within 12 weeks).
- Approved applicants will receive a certificate, certification card, pin order form, and a welcome letter.

If certification is denied, a letter is sent stating the reason for denial. There are two recourses for you, the applicant:

1. Meet the standards by:
  - a. obtaining academic education, or proof of such
  - b. obtaining activity and/or consulting experience, or proof of such
  - c. obtain MEPAP course
  - d. obtaining continuing education or proof of such and then re-applyOR
2. Prepare a typed appeal within 60 days of receipt of the denial of certification. This appeal should be mailed to the NCCAP office. The Appeals Committee will review appeals and render a decision.

Pending or denied applications will be maintained on file for 6 months. The application fee minus the $60 processing fee will be refunded by request only.
